An application MA No.D 13/2024 for listing has been filed by the applicant.

Since the defective appeal is already listed, no order is required to be passed on the above application.

The application MA No.D 13/2024 is disposed of accordingly.

Office report indicates that the defects indicated by the Registry has been removed but there are certain documents which are visible several times on the portal of the appellant. Learned counsel for applicant is directed to approach the Registry and get the defect removed within a week.

On examination we found that learned counsel for applicant has not placed on record allotment letter, brochure as well as agreement, if any.

On the request of learned counsel for applicant, we grant a week's time to the applicant to place on record the aforesaid documents.

List this defective appeal for order on 06.02.2024.
