An application for withdrawal of instant case has been filed by the applicant on the ground that against impugned order, the respondent filed Appeal No 336/2019 whereby the order of the Adjudicating Officer was set aside hence appellant seeks to withdraw instant case with liberty to appellant to pursue/approach other forum for the adjudication of the present dispute.

Sri N. N. Pandey, learned counsel for the respondent is present and has no objection in withdrawal of the instant case by the applicant. He further submitted that as far as liberty is concerned, appellant can approach any forum according to law but no liberty is required to be granted by the Tribunal in the instant case.

On due consideration, the application of the applicant for withdrawal of instant Misc Case is allowed and accordingly the instant Misc Case is dismissed as withdrawn.

It is open for the appellant to approach appropriate forum in accordance with law, if so advised.
